Bridge Course Activity Report

Commerce Department

Academic Year: 2025–2026

Title: Bridge Course for First-Year Commerce Students

Date: 19/09/2024 to 21/09/2024

Objective of the Bridge Course:

The bridge course was conducted with the aim of providing foundational knowledge to first-year commerce students, helping them transition smoothly from school-level to college-level academic expectations. The course was designed to familiarize students with core concepts in commerce and prepare them for the upcoming curriculum.

Course Content Covered:

The bridge course covered the following key topics:

1. Introduction to Commerce- Meaning, scope, and branches, Importance of commerce in the modern economy
2. Basic Accounting Concepts - Types of accounts, journal entries, and ledger, Introduction to financial statements
3. Business Studies - Forms of business organizations, Role of Entrepreneurship
4. Economics Overview - Basic economic terms and principles, Introduction to micro and macroeconomics
5. Soft Skills & Communication - Business communication basics, Presentation skills and group discussions

Resource Persons:

- Dr. Rekha M. Gulhane, Professor, Commerce Department
- Dr. Bharti S. Goswami, Associate Professor, Commerce Department
- Dr. Kanchan D. Joshi, Assistant Professor, English Department
- Mr. Mulidhar B. Gawali, Assistant Professor, Marathi Department

Participants:

A total of 12 first-year commerce students attended the bridge course. Participation was active and enthusiastic, with students engaging in interactive sessions and activities.

Outcome of the Activity:

The bridge course successfully achieved its objective of bridging the knowledge gap for new commerce students. It laid a strong foundation and boosted students' confidence for their academic journey ahead. Feedback received from the students was overwhelmingly positive, with many appreciating the practical insights and real-life examples shared during the sessions.

Conclusion:

The Bridge Course for the Commerce Department was a well-structured and impactful initiative. It provided clarity on fundamental concepts and encouraged students to develop a keen interest in commerce subjects. The department looks forward to organizing more such programs to enhance academic readiness and career orientation.
